

Gangtok, March 13: (IPR) The festival of Holi which commemorates the victory of good over evil was celebrated in a grand manner at Mintokgang today. Two groups called upon the Hon'ble Chief Minister and wished him on the auspicious occasion of Holi.

The Chief Minister thanked everyone for their presence and wished for happiness and abundance in the lives of all. He said that we must promote the spirit of oneness, social harmony and brotherhood amongst the people of Sikkim.

The first group was the Marwari Community which was led by Mayor of GMC Mr. Shakti Singh Choudhary and Mr. Hari Prasad. He on behalf of his community put tika, khadas and thanked the Chief Minister for his unrelenting support to his community. He expressed his gratitude to the Chief Minister for providing new direction and fresh insight into the development dynamic which had resulted in flourishing of business and trade. Furthermore, he said that they were very lucky to be in a state like Sikkim which had peace, prosperity and a leader like him.

Members of Sikkim Aam Bihari Kalyan Manch along with the Councillor Mr. Pinku Kumar and President Mr. Chotey Lal Prasad also called upon the Chief Minister and wished him Holi with shawls and khadas. They also expressed their gratitude for all the support which had always been in the collective interest of the State in the best way possible.
